
The Sun

by Sean Snowden

I'm trying to find a reason
Everyone had a better day
Just tell me what to do
I'm here to stay
And I'm here for you

(Chorus)

I'd fly toward the sun after you

I take for granted
The air I breathe
The people I see every day
Am I losing sight
Of all the things important to me?

(Chorus)

No I won't accept all of your goodbyes
Now let's all write how the story ends
Through my eyes

(Chorus)
